12. Resignation or removal of Trustees

12.1 A Trustee shall cease to be a Trustee if he or she:

- (a) dies;
- (b) becomes bankrupt or insolvent or makes any compromise with creditors; ¹
- (c) becomes physically or mentally incapacitated to the extent that, in the opinion of the other Trustees, he or she is unable to perform the duties of a trustee properly;
- (d) is convicted of an indictable offence;
- (e) resigns by notice in writing to the Trustees;
- (f) is absent from New Zealand for a period of 3 months without obtaining a leave of absence from the other Trustees;
- (g) fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings of Trustees, of which he or she has been duly notified, without obtaining a leave of absence from the other Trustees;
- (h) is removed on the grounds of bringing the Trust into disrepute in accordance with clause 12.2; or
- (i) is removed by operation of law.

12.2 A Trustee may be removed on the grounds of bringing the Trust into disrepute as follows:

- (a) if the Trustees believe that one of their number is guilty of bringing the Trust into disrepute, they shall conduct an investigation of the matter, including providing a reasonable opportunity for the Trustee in question to respond to the allegations;
- (b) for the purposes of this clause, bringing the Trust into disrepute includes but is not limited to, any action which is breach of this Deed or any Code of Conduct which the Trustees may adopt from time to time;
- (c) at the conclusion of an investigation in accordance with clause 12.2(a), the Trustees may make a recommendation that the Trustee in question should be removed from office; and
- (d) a recommendation in accordance with 12.2(c) shall be considered by a Hui-ā-Tau or Special Meeting of Beneficiaries and the Trustee in question may be removed from office by a resolution of the meeting to that effect.

¹ As that term is used in s.385 of the Companies Act.
